NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Bits of Paragraphs that Give Condensed Notes of the Day.

The China sails for San Francisco today at 5 o'clock.

The War Cry is publishing a serial story entitled "Tewauniki." Hawaiian Lodge No. 21 meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work in third degree.

Henry Smith of the Judiciary department calls for tenders for printing and binding volume 13 Hawaiian Reports.
The Honolulu Market Co. is offering meats, poultry, produce ice-house delicacies, etc., at reduced market prices.
Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, Jas.
F. Morgan will sell about 30 bake ovens slightly damaged on voyage of importation.

The German Benevolent Society of this city will hold its annual meeting at 9:15 a. m. tomorrow at the office of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd.

A lady's purse with monogram "J" has been lost between Atherton's place on King street and Judd street. Finder will kindly return to this office.

There will be two games of football tomorrow afternoon: England vs. To-lani United at Oahu College; Scotland vs. B. F. Beardmore's eleven at Makiki, the latter game will begin at 4.
Miss Kathleen Cartwright, daughter of Bruce Cartwright sails by the China today. She goes to Washington and will be the guest of Mrs. William Haywood during the inaugural period.

At the New Year's reception given by Assistant Secretary of the Navy Hackett and Mrs. Hackett taking the place of Secretary and Mrs. Long, Mrs. William Haywood, formerly of Honolulu, assisted Mrs. Hackett in receiving.

WHAT OF THE PUBLIC?

A system of insurance against losses from strikes has appeared in Austria.
But it applies only to private employing corporations. How about the insurance of the public from strike losses?—
Springfield Republican.

A GOVERNOR'S ODDITIES.

The oddities of the Michigan governor have been growing more pronounced as his term of office draws to a close. He is now issuing numerous pardons of criminals in the state-prison at a rate which threatens to empty the penitentiary before inauguration day.—
Springfield Republican.

EMBALMED BEER.

Arsenic has been discovered in English beer, the drug having been introduced as an antiseptic to prevent excessive fermentation. The question of embalmed beer may yet come up in connection with the canteen discussion.
—Washington Star.

INVITE THE PRINCE.

It is not likely that the Prince of Wales could accept an invitation to visit America to witness the next international yacht races. He is too near to the crown, now that the queen has become so old, to go so far away from England. Still, an invitation from the New York yacht club would be a mark of courtesy which the affable prince would be sure to appreciate.—Springfield Republican.
